

Spanish Bilingual Program in Speech-Language Pathology

At Indiana University Virtual Open House

- Do you speak Spanish fluently?
- Do you want a rewarding career helping people learn to communicate?
- Are you looking for a graduate program that combines a strong academic curriculum, real-world experience with Spanish speakers, clinical practicum and the opportunity for community outreach?

If so, then the Indiana University Speech Therapy Education, Practicum, and Services for Latine Children and Families (STEPS) program in the Department of Speech and Hearing Sciences is a great program for you!

To be eligible, you must first apply to the IU Master's program in Speech, Language and Hearing Sciences. All interested students fluent in Spanish are encouraged to apply!

We will have a virtual open house where we will provide information about STEPS.

When: Friday, October 27th

Time: 2:00 PM EST (1:00 PM CDT, 12:00 PM MDT, 11:00 AM PCT)
